

LITERATURE RESOURCE CENTER

Step 1: At login screen, type S followed by your Student ID number.
Example: S1234567

Step 2: Type password (Your Metrolink or MCCKC portal password)

Step 3: Click on Alpha List. Scroll down the alphabetical list of Online Databases and click on Literature Resource Center.

Step 4: Type in name of author and click on search. (If more than one author with the same name appears, note the date of birth by the author's name in order to select the correct person). Click on name.

Step 5: Use the print button in the database to reformat the article for printing. Use the browser print button to print. Articles can also be downloaded or e-mailed to another computer.

Hints for searching:

1. Tabs along the top of the page indicate the type of information available on the author. Tabs include Biographies and Literary Criticism. All the blue links listed below the tab contain full-text information from the Gale Series literary encyclopedias.
2. Can also search by title or do an advanced search which allows combining an author with a specific title.
