ACADEMIC ONEFILE

Step 1: Click on Alpha List.

Step 2: Scroll down the alphabetical list of Online Databases and click on Academic OneFile.

Step 3: Limit to documents with full text and peer-reviewed publications. In the Find box type in your subject and click on Search. A list of articles will appear. Click on the Full-text link or PDF page to view article. Choose from among the many options in the Tools box located in the upper right side of the article when saving it.

Hints for searching:

1. If you are searching for a general subject such as cloning, add another term separated by the word “and”. Ex. cloning and ethics
2. If you type in a term and the computer doesn’t give you many articles, try typing in a different search term. For example; instead of the word “cloning” use: Ex. medical ethics
