Columbia College, a private, coeducational institution, offers associate, baccalaureate, and master degrees that prepare students of differing backgrounds and abilities, for entry-level or advanced positions in various occupations and professions. Founded in 1851 by charter of the Missouri legislature, and then named Christian Female College, Columbia College assumed its current name and became coeducational in 1970. Although it retains a covenant with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Columbia College is a nonsectarian institution.
