

Thursday, May 6, 2010 -- Thursday May 13, 2010

1. District Regulation 6.1560 EXAMINATIONS states that final examinations will be given in each course at the time specified by the Dean of Instructional Services unless special arrangements are made with the Dean. If a student fails to appear for a scheduled final examination and provides a satisfactory explanation, the instructor may arrange for a make-up examination. If a student fails to appear for a scheduled final examination and makes no explanation of the absence, his/her semester grade will be an "F."
2. The last day of instruction for:
DAY CLASSES: Wednesday, May 5, 2010
EVENING CLASSES: Wednesday, May 5, 2010
SATURDAY CLASSES: Saturday, May 1, 2010
3. Saturday classes will be examined at the regular meeting hours on Saturday, May 8. Two (2) hours are allowed for the final exam. Sunday classes will be examined at the regular meeting hours on Sunday, May 9. Two (2) hours are allowed for the final exam.
4. Examinations for classes with laboratories are scheduled by lecture hours. Two (2) hours are allowed for the final exam.
5. Please remember that students who have previously indicated physical or learning disabilities which require extended testing time must be allowed that same extension for finals. Specific questions on appropriate length of testing time may be addressed to the Special Needs Counselor.
6. Students who have a conflict in examination times or have 3 or more exams scheduled on the same day may arrange to reschedule one of the exams with the permission of the instructor.
7. HOW TO READ THE FINAL EXAM SCHEDULE: Column #1 gives times (If class begins between) - Locate your class beginning time, then move across the appropriate examination column and note the time of your examination. For example, if you have a class which begins between 9:00A-9:55A - T R, you would locate that time in column #1 -- 9:00 to 9:55, the column #2 -- TR, -- following that line across, you would then note that your exam is scheduled for 9:00-11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, May 11, 2010.
