Communication with ACCE

Ongoing communication between clinical education faculty and the ACCE is crucial in the success of the clinical education program. Clinical instructors are encouraged to contact the ACCE with any questions, concerns, or complaints. To assure good communication, the program encourages clinical instructors to use all of the following methods of communication. In addition, the ACCE will periodically call and/or make a site visit.

1. Contact Rachel McGraw, ACCE by phone 816-604-4909, fax 759-4646 or email rachel.mcgraw@mcckc.edu.
